

Machine Operator

Date: 1/25/2024

Position: Machine Operator

Description: Offering variety, stability and a teamwork environment producing high quality wood products. A machine operator will learn how to identify quality standards in lumber and ripped blanks, operate gang rip, chop computer optimized systems, planers, glue wheel, sanding and priming equipment. Mainly for the custom cabinet, furniture, and architectural millwork industries. Training to rotate and lead a three-person crew or on CNC moulders are available.

Responsibilities/Principal Duties:

- Operate both non computer controlled and CNC equipment as trained
- Discern quality and quantitative data instructions provided
- Communicate with coworkers at workstation and in production

Requirements:

- High School graduation or GED equivalent
- OTJ included in all hired positions
- Any woodworking experience is helpful
- Reading instructions, writing and data entry required
- Ability to read a tape measure and other measuring tools
- Good eye site for quality differentiation
- Standing, walking, lifting 25-50lbs
- Keyboard navigation for excel and software data entry
- Mechanically inclined

Additional Details:

- Full Time-40 hours, most weekends off
- 6:30am -3:00PM Monday - Friday
- Benefits
 - Health Ins
 - Vacation
 - Personal Days
 - Holidays
 - 401 K Retirement

Pay level- $15.50 -Negotiable- higher pay depending on experience

Lewis Lumber Products is an Equal Opportunity Employer